

The Flatshare

Cut along the dashed lines and pass the cards around the table.

WARM-UP

1

Settle in with your tea: which scene made you smile so much you wanted to read it aloud to someone?

The Flatshare

WARM-UP

2

If you found a sticky note from a stranger on your fridge, what would you hope it said?

The Flatshare

DISCUSSION

3

Tiffany and Leon's flat slowly turns into a kind of home. What makes a space feel like home to you, and did this book make you want to change anything about your own?

The Flatshare

DISCUSSION

4

The notes between them feel cozy and intimate even before they meet. Have you ever felt close to someone through writing, letters, texts, or even a journal exchange?

The Flatshare

DISCUSSION

5

Friendship is just as warm as the romance here. Whose friend group did you want to crash, and which friend would you call on a hard day?

The Flatshare

DISCUSSION

6

The book gently holds some heavier moments inside its softness. What surprised you about how those harder threads were handled?

The Flatshare

DEEP

7

Tiffany slowly learns to trust her own version of events again. Was there a moment in the story that resonated with a time you had to relearn how to trust yourself or someone else?

The Flatshare

DEEP

8

Without giving anything away, what did this book leave you carrying around the next day, a feeling, an image, a small bit of comfort?

The Flatshare