

Klara and the Sun

Cut along the dashed lines and pass the cards around the table.

WARM-UP

1

Klara finds wonder in small, ordinary sights. What is a small thing in your week that quietly delighted you?

Klara and the Sun

WARM-UP

2

How did the opening pages make you feel as you settled in with Klara? Cozy, curious, a little wistful?

Klara and the Sun

DISCUSSION

3

Klara's devotion to the Sun feels almost like a private comfort ritual. What small rituals or sources of light bring you comfort?

Klara and the Sun

DISCUSSION

4

The book is full of soft observations rather than big speeches. Was there a scene that gently lingered with you after you closed the book?

Klara and the Sun

DISCUSSION

5

Klara's way of seeing the world (in fragments and patterns) felt very particular. Did her perspective change how you noticed your own surroundings while reading?

Klara and the Sun

DISCUSSION

6

This story sits with loneliness very tenderly. Was there a moment that felt especially comforting, or one that made you want to hug someone you love?

Klara and the Sun

DEEP

7

Without giving anything away, how did the book leave you feeling about hope, even when things are uncertain? Did it offer you any quiet reassurance?

Klara and the Sun

DEEP

8

Klara loves in a very steady, attentive way. Has someone in your life loved you like that, or have you loved someone like that, and how did the book stir those memories?

Klara and the Sun