

Sunlight Finds You

Cut along the dashed lines and pass the cards around the table.

WARM-UP

1

What was the weather or setting like around you as you read this one, and did it match the book's Florida sunshine at all?

Sunlight Finds You

WARM-UP

2

Was there a scene or small moment early on that made you settle in and think, 'okay, I'm going to love spending time here'?

Sunlight Finds You

DISCUSSION

3

The book leans into that golden feeling of a first love in a specific place and time. Did it stir up any warm memories of your own teenage years?

Sunlight Finds You

DISCUSSION

4

Which passages felt the most comforting to sink into, and which ones ached in a good way?

Sunlight Finds You

DISCUSSION

5

How did the 1950s Florida atmosphere feel to you as a reader, cozy, complicated, or somewhere in between?

Sunlight Finds You

DISCUSSION

6

Moriarty writes about the way early love shapes us for years afterward. Is there a person or season from your own past that you feel you're still carrying with you?

Sunlight Finds You

DEEP

7

The story sits with separation and sacrifice in a quiet way. What did the book help you feel or understand about the choices we make for the people we love?

Sunlight Finds You

DEEP

8

By the end, what did 'self-determination' come to mean for you through this story, and did reading it change how you think about paths not taken?

Sunlight Finds You